Chapter 58, Article 3

Title

Article III. Addison Athletic Club and
Trinity Christian Athletic Complex

Recommended Ordinance Changes

Chapter 58, Article 3, Section 58-66 Use restricted to members and guests

The use of the grounds, facilities and equipment of the AAC and TCAC is restricted to current members of AAC and guests of such members. Only bona fide residents of the town and their dependents ages eight 3 months through 18 shall be eligible to become members of AAC. Dependents 18 through 23 years of age may remain on their parent's membership application, as dependents, if enrolled as full-time college students. Proof of full time college enrollment may be accepted in place of the minimum requirements listed below. Employees of the town may become conditional members of AAC upon the terms and conditions established by the director. Minimum membership requirements include the following:

- (1) A valid state department of public safety driver's license or state department of public safety identification card which shows a current residential address within the corporate limits of the Town;
- (2) A current document such as a utility bill, vehicle registration, voter's registration, credit card statement, vehicle insurance, or other document, as approved by the director,

which shows the same address as in (1) above; and

- (3) If an applicant is living in an apartment, a signed leasing office verification form from the owner or manager of the apartment.

The director may require additional information if deemed necessary. Birth certificates of dependent children may be requested in order to establish age.

Exceptions to the minimum membership requirements listed above shall only be made for: (i) residents participating in the Texas Department of Public Safety Confidentiality Program; or (ii) residents who are active military. The town may request documentation from a resident to support these exceptions.

Individuals with an Addison business address or hotel address, including extended stay, are not eligible for membership. Owners of residential properties are not eligible for membership unless they currently reside on the property or at another Addison residence.

Chapter 58, Article 3, Section 58-67

Process for membership

- a) Any adult person who is a current resident of the town may make an application at the AAC for membership on an application form prescribed by the town. Upon presentation of proof of residency as required in section 58-66 and upon completion of the application process to the satisfaction of the town and payment of fees, if any, the applicant will be issued a photograph membership card. After issuance of a membership card, memberships shall be renewed annually with proof of current residency.

Chapter 58, Article 3, Section 58-68 False representation of residency prohibited

It is unlawful and an offense for a person to knowingly make a false representation on any document or to present to town employees any document containing false information in order to gain membership in AAC or TCAC. It is unlawful and an offense for a person to knowingly give false verification of residency of a tenant of rental property to town employees in order for the tenant to gain membership in AAC or TCAC.

Chapter 58, Article 3, Section 58-69

Failure to exhibit membership card

Members of the AAC and TCAC shall present town membership cards upon request by the director or the police department. Failure to produce and exhibit such card may result in ejection from park property the AAC.

Chapter 58, Article 3, Section 58-70 Fees

A nonrefundable fee for processing the application for AAC or TCAC membership shall be charged at the time of application or reapplication. The amount of the fee shall be determined by the city council. Additional fees associated with the use of the AAC are listed below.
